CBJ has partnered with the Jewish Relief Agency (JRA) and PACS to create a network for delivering groceries to resource challenged households in the Phoenixville Area one Sunday a month. We are now delivering to over 40 households in the area. In order to make this program as successful as possible, we need your help delivering boxes! It's a small commitment with a big impact.

All congregants are welcome to participate in this wonderful mitzvah delivering boxes to our neighbors in need!

We are currently looking for additional "back up drivers" to cover for regular drivers when they are out. We especially need back-up drivers during the summer months.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact Ruth Yeiser at ryeiser@alumni.upenn.edu

Does a Golem Count in a Minyan? (And Other 21st Century Implications of an Ancient Legend)

Adult Education with Rabbi Sultar

"Who can say he knows anything about the Golem? ...Always they treat it as a legend, till somethings happens and turns it into actuality again. After which it's talked of for many a day."

- Gustav Meyrink, in his 1915 novel The Golem

The golem – an artificial person created by mystical and magical means – has taken many different forms throughout Jewish history. In the coming year, we'll explore together the earliest recorded citings/sightings of the golem, and how the legend(s) evolved right up into the 20th century. We'll consider how the golem has served as an ever-changing metaphor for the most pressing issues of each generation. And because the Rabbis of old believed the golem existed – whether it actually did or not – they asked halachic/Jewish legal questions that now provide us with a Jewish perspective on today's and tomorrow's headlines, as we stand on the verge of possibly creating the first-ever actual golems in the history of the world.

Sundays at 10:00 – 11:00 AM In-Person in the CBJ Library (and via Zoom)

8. May 5:

Building Golems Today, Part 2 – Getting Real about Artificial Intelligence

What Do You Want to Learn Next?

Beginning in May, we begin plotting out our programs for the coming year. This planning includes the adult education classes that I offer each month. I have so, so many different ideas for things I'd like to learn with you.

For example, there are a number of new books out written by friends and colleagues that I've been meaning to get to, such as Rabbi Michael Strassfeld's Judaism Disrupted: A Spiritual Manifesto for the 21st Century. And Rabbi Shai Held's Judaism Is About Love: Recovering the Heart of Jewish Life. And Rabbi Toba Spitzer's God Is Here: Reimagining the Divine. I've also been chomping at the bit to dive into a book from a year or two back called The New Jewish Canon: Ideas & Debates 1980-2015, edited by Rabbi Yehuda Kurtzer and Claire Sufrin.

I'm glad to pick selections from some of the above, or from other ideas that will inevitably come, but before anything gets set in stone, I'd love to hear from you the answer to some of these questions:

- 1- What interests you most in Judaism, either that you'd don't know anything about or do but would like to learn about in more depth?
- 2- What questions about Judaism have you had for the longest time?
- 3- What's confused you the most about Jewish traditions, or practices, or teachings?
- 4- What's troubling you most about Judaism in your own spiritual journey?
- 5- Do any of the books/topics listed above excite you? Or would drive you away?
- 6- In short, what do you want to learn next? And most?

It doesn't matter how big or how small your questions might be, or how many you have. Just send them along. Perhaps it, or they, would be enough for a single class. Perhaps for several. Perhaps for an entire year. And maybe if it doesn't' require so much time, then we can feature it as the teaching in a Shabbat service (that we're sure you can be there for).

In short, what do you want to learn next?

Please send me an email with any responses, to rabbi@congbj.org

And I look forward to learning with you next year!

Rabbi Jeff Sultar

THE TREE OF LIFE

In Judaism, the "Tree of Life" often symbolizes the wisdom of the Torah. In Proverbs it says: "Its ways are ways of pleasantness, and all its paths are peace. It is a tree of life for those who grasp it, and those who draw near it are fortunate." Laws and customs connected with trees permeate the Bible and Talmud, providing an ethical basis underlying human relationships (tithing and charity) and the environment (ecology).

We have a beautiful Tree of life sculpture as you enter our main lobby on the right hand wall. Stop a minute next time you are in the building and look at the names and memories permanently ensconced there- most are happy memories- milestone events like b'nai mitzvahs, marriages and appreciations for life-long friends.

You will see momentous occasions like 25th and 50th wedding anniversaries and 80th or "special" birthdays commemorated on the tree. Other leaves document continuity celebrations for our congregation like births of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Testimonials of generous service to our congregation and other individuals are written in its' boughs.

It tells a story of a community- our community- one we can celebrate and continue to tell going forward.

This is a great time to purchase one and add to our legacy. Let this Tree of Life bring our congregation both physical and spiritual sustenance for the years to come.

To purchase a leaf, contact Carol Actor (cffactor@verizon.net). Leaves are $150 each.
